One day, someone came up to me and said "hello." "Hello" I replied back, even though I really did not want to talk. I was on a mission. "What's that in your hand?" they said. "Oh this? It's nothing." I replied. My mind was racing... I can't let them ruin my plan! I had to get away from them, but they just wouldn't leave me alone. Just when I thought I had my chance to escape, you'll never believe what I saw!
